PRESENTATION

Since its foundation in 1985, the Centro Superior KATARINA GURSKA has played an outstanding role in the field of education and the promotion of musical talent in Spain. Its extensive educational activity and its social commitment are the result of the dedication of a great professional team and the trust placed in it by people and institutions that are committed to its project.

A living project in constant renewal and committed to society. With a clear humanist mission, every year it incorporates new pedagogical and socio-cultural activities that complement and favour the transversal musical training and the personal development of our students and their community.

Recognised as an authorised centre for Elementary Education since 1986, Professional Education since 1987, Higher Degree in Music since 2012, Master in Artistic Education since 2013 and since 2018 in Doctorate programmes in collaboration with the University of Valladolid, it offers a private national alternative for musical education and promotion based on a methodology of excellence that brings together national and international professional experiences and visions, always with proximity and respect.

KIRILL TROUSSOV

"Impressive elegance, irreproachable technique, an exceptional musical sensibility and sonorities of an immaculate beauty" is just one of many ways the international press has described his violin play. Russian-German violinist Kirill Troussov is widely recognized as one of the leading soloists of his generation. He works with renowned orchestras and conductors, around the world, and is a regular guest at prestigious festivals and in famous concert halls.

Kirill Troussov regularly gives international master classes at the Mozarteum in Salzburg, the European Music Institute in Vienna and at an increasing number of world-wide festivals and locations. His detailed, analytical and insightful approach makes him an effective and unique teacher who quickly lets his students improve their skills significantly. Watch excerpts of some master classes on Kirill Troussov's YouTube channel.

Kirill Troussov's passion for chamber music has led to celebrated performances with leading artists such as Sol Gabetta, Yuja Wang, Julian Rachlin, Daniel Hope, Joshua Bell, Yuri Bashmet, Mischa Maisky and Gautier & Renaud Capucon. The CDs he recorded together with his sister – pianist Alexandra Troussova – were highly praised by the international press.

Throughout his career, Kirill Troussov won numerous awards for his outstanding performance. He plays the Antonio Stradivari violin "Brodsky" of 1702, on which Adolph Brodsky performed the world premiere of Tchaikovsky's violin concerto, in 1881. His mentors include Sir Yehudi Menuhin and Igor Oistrakh.
